COMMUNIQUE DE PRESSE :

Art can sometimes be compared to gastronomy when harmony results of carefully-measured blends. We often improve a dish or highlight an exquisite taste when introducing a new flavour that use or conformism had prevented us from considering together.

Thomas Bernard and Christian Berst have not given up trying to find, through the works they present, how to highlight their main essence and taste. This strange place for a meeting ('Ce drôle d'endroit pour une rencontre') is made for that, for the eye, for the dialogue, for the pleasure.

Dialogue with the works of Leopold Strobl (christian berst art brut) and Franck Eon (Thomas Bernard Gallery - Cortex Athletico).
